

Welcome!

Hello and welcome to the Hydra User Group.
If you do not currently have a registered login, then please click 'Join Now' on the top right hand side of the screen, otherwise please login and enjoy the site.

Thank you,

HUG Admin.

Who ?

Prof Jonathan Crego - Director Hydra Foundation

Jonathan is the designer and owner of Hydra, Minerva and 10,000 Volts debriefing methodologies. He is the Director of Hydra Operations at the Metropolitan police New Scotland Yard London, where he is employed for 75% of his time. He also holds a Chair at the University of Liverpool Institute of Psychology, Society and Health. Jonathan has spent the last 20 years creating, debriefing and delivering critical incident decision-making simulation sessions using his evolving methodologies. He has licensed more than 60 Hydra Centres to use and develop Hydra methodologies. The current cost of this license is £ 1. The license ensures that each of the centres are committed to joining a community of ideas, sharing their research, sharing their exercise designs, and perhaps most importantly, sharing their successes. Jonathan has spent his career working alongside expert practitioners in the field. He worked with the family liaison teams in New York during the 9/11 terrorist attacks. He has debriefed hostage negotiators working in Afghanistan and Iraq for the release of British hostages and he has debriefed the London bombings the Soham murders and more recently the Cumbrian shootings. He

What is it??

Immersive
Learning?

Why?

Multi-Agency
Learning

The Hydra foundation is the community of ideas supporting hydra immersive learning methodologies. This community is focussed on providing real learning and research opportunities for expert practitioners working in the fields of; emergency services, criminal justice, military, government, industry and the commercial sectors.

Where?

- New South Wales Police HQ, Parramata, Australia
- Western Australia Police, Perth , Australia
- Los Angeles Police Dept, California, USA
- Royal Canadian Mounted Police College, Ottawa, Canada
- Garda Training College, North Tipperary, Ireland

When?

How? The System

- Plenary Room
- Syndicate Room and equipment
- Control Room
- Immersion
- Regular De-briefing / Learning
- Subject Matter Experts (SME's)
- Community of programmes

Hydra Control Room

